American Army Is Now Pursuing Mexican Bandits; Fight Coming

RETURN OF ROADS TO OWNERS ASKED

PLUMB PROPOSAL BITTERLY ATTACKED—PAN OF U. S. CHAMBER OUTLINED BEFORE COMMITTEE.

By News' Special Service

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Urging return of the railroads of the country to private operation as soon as remedial legislation can be enacted, George W. Post of New York, chairman of the railroad committee of the United States yesterday presented the chamber's railroad plan to house interstate commerce committee. There is manifest throughout the country, a "strong, even overwhelming sentiment against continuance of federal control and operation," said Mr. Post, "due to the unfavorable impression made by the operation of the railroads under federal control."

The program for government ownership advocated by the railroad brotherhoods was attacked by Mr. Post.

"Groups of business men differ in the details of plans for the railroads," he said, "but in one thing they will be found in firm agreement; Government ownership must not prevail."

Having the indorsement of the business men of the country through a referendum vote to the chamber's plan for the disposition of the railroads was presented by Mr. Post as follows:

- 1.—Corporate ownership and operation with comprehensive regulation.
- 2.—Return of the railroads to corporate operation as soon as remedial legislation can be enacted.
- 3.—Consolidation of lines in a limited number of strong competing systems.
- 4.—Railroad companies to become federated, the states to retain tax-

FIRST STATE OWNED FLOUR MILL FOR N. D.

By the Associated Press

BISMARCK, N. D., Aug. 20.—Steps toward providing North Dakota with its first state-owned flour mill under the Non-Partisan League program was taken here recently when the industrial commission, which will direct the operation of all state owned industries under the League plan, authorized J. A. McGovern, manager of the Mill and Elevator Association, to make a contract for the purchase of the flour mill at Drake. The mill has a capacity of 150 barrels a day.

Mr. McGovern also was instructed to plan for the establishment of the state's terminal flour mill and elevator, construction of which is expected to be started next spring. The industrial commission plans to use the Drake mill as the basis for the state organization, according to Oliver S. Morris, secretary of the industrial commission, and to train millers for state work.

Purchase of the Drake mill will be made when the industrial commission approves Mr. McGovern's contract.

MEXICAN FEDERAL TROOPS CO-OPERATE WITH AMERICANS

By the Associated Press

MARFA, Tex., Aug. 20.—Mexican federal troops are co-operating with American troops in Mexico, according to a message received by Colonel Langhorne today from the Mexican consul at Presidio, who reported that cavalry troops are being sent in the direction of Chihuahua, opposite Candelaria, Tex., in command of General Pruena.

ing and police powers over the properties.

- 5.—Federal regulation of capital expenditures and security issues.
- 6.—Federal regulation of interstate rates affecting interstate commerce.
- 8.—Creation of a federal transportation board.

Government Will Assume Offensive Attitude Toward Mexico from Now On, According to Information Received from Washington

COMMISSION AFTER GRAIN DISCRIMINATION

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 20.—Oscar Thraves, of the legal department of the state corporation commission, is at Lawton conferring with threshers and grain producers relative to a number of complaints from Comanche county of discrimination. The complainants have the usual trend, that threshers will make a stand on a farm where there is a large grain crop and then move several miles away, ignoring the requests of producers who have smaller acreages to thresh. The state corporation commission has threatened to bring threshers before the commission on such complaints but in nearly every instance the relief has been secured without further action than a request from the commission. The Comanche county situation was said to be becoming desperate and it was thought best to have a representative upon the ground and see if the producers could not be secured the relief for which they had petitioned the commission.

Two and a Half Tons Opium to Detroit Yearly

By the Associated Press

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 20.—Two and one-half tons of opium is each year brought into the city of Detroit and most of it is put to illegitimate uses, according to the federal authorities.

Detroit has 40,000 drug addicts, it has been estimated, and city officials are being urged to establish a municipal institution where they may be treated and cured if possible, for questioning has brought out the fact that a very large proportion of the victims acquire their drug habit through association with other addicts.

Detroit, it is said, is the third largest opium importing center in the United States, the major portion of the drug coming in from Canada and Mexico, and the police declare the "underground railway" over which the traffic is handled in the main is operated by a drug smuggling organization that is nationwide.

Not more than 10 per cent of the opium brought into this city is used in prescriptions and patent medicines, it has been stated, 90 per cent or more being used for illegal purposes. Medicine manufacturers here, investigation has shown use very little of the drug in their preparations.

Among the facts brought out by local investigations into the use of opium is that Americans, native, lead all other nationalities in its illegitimate use.

NEWS PRINT INDUSTRY TO BE INVESTIGATED

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Investigation of the news print paper industry to determine whether it is engaged in illegal practices, and whether prices are excessive, was authorized in a resolution introduced by Senator Reed of Missouri, and adopted by the senate today.

RUMANIAN WAR LEADERS PREPARING FOR OFFENSIVE

By the Associated Press

PARIS, Aug. 20.—Rumanian military authorities are preparing for an offensive east of Dniester river for the purpose of joining General Denekines. Anti-bolshevik forces are now in southern Russia according to the Echo de Paris.

PURSUIT OF BANDITS FIRST WORKING OUT OF POLICY TO BE PURSUED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

By the Associated Press

MARFA, Tex., Aug. 20.—Somewhere in Mexico, opposite Candelaria, Texas, American soldiers early today continued in their pursuit begun yesterday of bandits who captured and held for ransom Lieutenants Peterson and Davis. Military quarters here were without information from the punitive expedition. Heavy storms in the mountains of Chihuahua interrupting communication via army field telephones. Two aviators of the expedition returned last night with bullet holes in the planes of their machines, and reported being attacked by a bandit gang of three Mexicans, one of whom they believed they killed with machine gun bullets.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—American-Mexican border raids and depredations by bandits directly across the border will in the future bring the United States armed forces upon the marauders, according to evidence from official sources today. The present punitive expedition, led by Major General Joseph T. Dickman, constitutes the first working out of new policy which one official characterized as "handling the border nuisance without gloves."

BUSBY RESIGNS FROM FAIR PRICE COMMITTEE

"I have resigned as chairman of the Fair Price Committee of Pontotoc county for the reason that, as County Judge, I have been appointed chairman of the new county council of defense to be reorganized at once. I do not feel that I could do justice to both positions, as chairman of the Fair Price Committee and as Chairman of the County Council of Defense of this county."

"The Fair Price Committee has been well organized and is a committee composed of some of the strongest and most patriotic citizens of this county, who are already at work toward reducing the high cost of living. They are sincere in their purpose and will accomplish results. They should have the heartiest co-operation and support of every good citizen in Pontotoc county."

CITY IS BEING GAILY DECORATED FOR VETS

W. A. Cease is here and is dressing Ada in arrogant colors for the coming of the U. C. V.'s. American and Confederate flags and gay colored banners are hanging promiscuously from the wires over the business part of the city, hailing with joy the eventful date for the reunion and extending a glad welcome to the old veterans who will be here from all over the state.

Mr. W. A. Cease is located in the vacant building just west of the Blankenship-Cummings Undertaking parlor. He has an extraordinary line of decorations, all colors and sizes of flags, also a beautiful line of festooning for decoration of cars. Tomorrow morning Mr. Cease will solicit the business men of the city for the purpose of decorating their buildings. Mr. Cease is an experienced man at this trade, he having had charge of the greater part of the decoration at Tulsa last year at the National reunion of the U. C. V.'s.

WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy tonight and tomorrow. Showers in the extreme west portion of state.

DAYLIGHT SAVING LAW REPEALED OVER VETO

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Repeal of the daylight saving act was accomplished today, the senate voting fifty-seven to nineteen to sustain the house in passing the repeal measure yesterday over the president's veto.

FOUR RESERVATIONS MADE IN NEW RESOLUTION

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Four reservations, similar to those recently proposed by a group of seven senators, and dealing with withdrawal from the League of Nations, of article ten of the League covenant, domestic questions and the Monroe Doctrine, are embodied in a separate resolution prepared today by Senator Pittman of Nevada, Democratic member of the foreign relations committee. Pittman said the reservations had not been presented to the president.

Another Penny Added to K. C. Street Car Fares

By News' Special Service

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 20.—"Another penny, please. The fare is 7 cents now."

This morning Kansas City began paying increased street car fares and the request of the conductor for "another penny" caused many a Kansas Citian to "break" another 5-cent piece to meet the rising cost of street car transportation. Delays were frequent owing to the time consumed in making change at congested corners. Never before were pennies in such demand, it was said, and the future of the "penny bank" is declared to be gloomy.

Today's increase of 1 cent in the street car fare is a step to the 8-cent fare which recently was authorized by the Missouri public service commission. The 8-cent charge was to have become effective today by the traction company, after securing the sanction of the commission, announced a 7-cent fare until the public had opportunity to purchase the new 8-cent tickets.

And it cost more to take the children along, too. Half fare tickets were sold by the conductors at four for 15 cents, or a cash fare of 4 cents each.

THE CLEAN-UP.

The mayor of the city has designated next Friday as clean-up day. Let us make it all that the term implies. In the first place the old veterans will be with us next week and we should do all in our power to have the city looking spick and span when they come.

We are to cut the weeds, gather up the rubbish and get rid of trash of all sorts. Nothing, certainly, will be more important from the standpoint of advertising than to have a clean town when our visitors come.

In the next place the busy season is soon on which will carry us into the winter. Weeds should not be allowed to rot on the premises, as such filth breeds disease. Spending a little time now cleaning up your place and you will not have to spend so much for doctor bills this winter.

WHOLESALE PRODUCE HOUSE TO OPEN HERE

A new produce house will open for business in Ada the last of the week. This will be the "Dandridge-Kerr Produce Company," composed of Ada men and only recently organized. The company has leased the building on West 12th Street formerly occupied by the Ada Star-Democrat and expect to open for business the last of the week.

The Dandridge-Kerr company is composed of T. O. Dandridge, Robert S. Kerr and Fred Guinn, all of whom are well known in Ada. They have formed connections with some of the largest produce houses of the southwest and will be prepared to handle produce in any quantities. They will also be in the market to buy and sell all kinds of produce and will make further announcement of their plans presently.

STRIKE OF ACTORS WILL CLOSE CHICAGO THEATERS

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—A strike of stage hands and musicians as an adjunct to the actors' strike threatens to close every play house in Chicago tonight. If threats are carried out only photoplay and vaudeville houses will be in operation.

JAP SHIP FOUNDERS AND MANY ARE LOST

By the Associated Press

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Japan's transport, Shijika Maru, struck a rock and foundered August 15th south of Sanagashima, according to a Nagasaki dispatch received by Lloyds. One hundred and ten on board are reported missing.

Miss Edna Stokes has returned from her summer's vacation in the Ozark mountains and was accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. M. C. Harsch, who will make an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Gilstrap and family, 129 West Fifteenth.

TEXAS COTTON ACREAGE LESS

LACK OF PRICE GUARANTEE CAUSE OF REDUCTION SAYS F. N. GRAY, COTTON EXPERT.

By the Associated Press

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 20.—Cotton acreage under cultivation in Texas is 10 per cent less than at the corresponding period last year, according to F. N. Gray, state cotton crop specialist in the federal crop bureau at Houston.

The total acreage under cultivation in July was estimated at 10,755,000, compared with 11,950,000 planted acres last year. Based on a condition of 65 per cent of normal, it indicates a yield of 134 pounds of lint cotton per acre, Mr. Gray declared.

"A total crop of 2,985,000 equivalent 500 pound gross weight bales, allowing the usual 1 per cent for abandoned acreage," was Mr. Gray's prediction based on July reports. Last year's production was 2,700,804 bales.

There would have been less reduction in acreage," Mr. Gray declares, "but for the limitation occasioned by almost continuous rains, very unusual in June. While various reasons are ascribed for the reduction (Continued on Page Eight.)"

BULLOCK HEADS FAIR PRICE COMMITTEE

Arden L. Bullock has been appointed chairman of the Fair Price Committee of Pontotoc County to succeed Judge Busby, who has resigned. Having been appointed chairman of the new county council of defense, Judge Busby found himself unable to act in both capacities and resigned his position with the Fair Price Committee.

Let's Be Good to the Old Soldiers

Next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday Ada will be host to the Confederate Veterans of the whole state. This is probably the last time this city will be honored as the meeting place of the state reunion. Very rapidly now are the ranks of the old heroes of the early sixties thinning, and within a few short years the last survivor of those troublous days will be lowered beneath the sod.

In view of these facts, can we do too much for them on the occasion of their state reunion?

Can we, in fact, do enough for them on this auspicious occasion?

We think not, but we can do our best, and we believe Ada will not be content with doing less.

Every business house in the city should be properly decorated on this occasion. It is by no means inappropriate to display the colors of the Confederacy, when displayed in company with the stars and stripes. It is only a recognition of the respect we have for those who fought in a cause they believed to be just.

It is also the duty of every citizen to get his business and his work in such shape as to give the old veterans a part of their time. All persons who own cars should place them and a driver at the disposal of the visitors at certain hours during each day.

Proper arrangements should, and we are sure will, be made for the accommodation of all guests in the matter of eating and sleeping quarters.

Every person should wear their best smile and go out of their way, if need be, to make the old veterans feel at home. In fact we want them to feel that Ada is the most hospitable city in which they have ever assembled, and we want them to feel it so effectively that they will tell others about it wherever they go.

Every small boy and girl should make it a point to be quiet and courteous when in the presence of our guests, the old veterans, and they should do all in their power to make their visit here a comfortable and enjoyable one.

Ada has never done things by halves in the past. We cannot afford to do so now. But let us outdo ourselves when the veterans come to town. As they depart from here next week, many of them never to return, let us acquit ourselves so they may have nothing but words of praise for Ada and her people.

It will be a small matter for our people to do these things, but in doing them we will do much for Ada, and that is, or should be, the desire of every loyal citizen of the city.

AMERICAN WIVES OF ALIEN NOBLEMEN FEEL POVERTY PINCH IN SWITZERLAND

Duchess of Croy

Recent dispatches from abroad state that many of the American heiresses who were wed to alien noblemen are feeling the pinch of poverty in Switzerland. Many of them are living in seclusion in the little republic awaiting help from American relatives. Among those said to be living moderately in Switzerland is the Duchess of Croy, formerly the beautiful Nancy Leishman, of Pittsburgh. Her marriage to the young Duke of Croy in October, 1913, near Geneva, created quite a sensation. The marriage was opposed by the family of the Duke, who risked social ostracism for himself and his wife by marrying the American girl. The family later withdrew the opposition to the marriage.

California Would Vote For League of Nations, Says Her Secy. of State

By News' Special Service

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—If the people of California were to vote on the League of Nations, a majority would cast for ratification, in the opinion of Frank C. Jordon, secretary of state for California and one of the most popular officials that state has ever had.

Mr. Jordon, who is now in Washington for a visit of a few days, is a Republican and is now serving his tenth consecutive year as secretary of state, being re-elected the last time by a majority of more than 300,000.

The American people favor agreements to prevent future wars, Mr. Jordon said in a statement to a newspaper man after his arrival in the national capital, and will not approve of any partisan action that will again imperil civilization.

"The people of California are waiting until those for and against the League have fought the question out on the floor of the senate," said Mr. Jordon, who continued: "If at vote were taken in California today, it would be for ratification of the treaty. The American people favor agreements that will prevent wars in the future. They feel that the covenant will have such force that nations will hesitate to attack when this agreement between nations is in existence. The good faith of the nation is pledged to the observance of its conditions, and that faith will not be lightly broken. Nations will hesitate to treat it as another 'scrap of paper'."

"America fought for civilization, and will not approve of any partisan action at this great moment which may imperil it again. America needs a league of nations as well as England and France. There was a moment in the great conflict when the success of German arms meant positive disaster to our own land. The day has passed when America can take refuge in an attitude of selfish isolation."

President Wilson's labors in the interest of lasting peace entitle him to the gratitude of every peace-loving and fair-minded man, Mr. Jordon asserts.

"Critics of the president attempt to visualize the superman," said Mr. Jordon, "whereas Mr. Wilson is merely a virile American who has devoted all his powers of heart and brain for the upbuilding of what is intended to be a barrier against the forces of destruction. In that barrier points of weakness may develop but what he has already done constitutes a restraining force which ought to make every American feel that the welfare of the people of all nations has been safeguarded for the future, and for this much Mr. Wilson deserves the gratitude of every fair-minded man."

Violation of the law of supply and demand is largely responsible for the cost of living problem, Mr. Jordon thinks. "The crux of the food question lies in the fact that the law of supply and demand has not been allowed to take its natural course," he said. "Demand for food is not variable, but the supply has been manipulated to serve selfish ends. Allow as much freedom for the operation of supply as for the demand, and prices must eventually reach their proper level."

That Senator Hiram Johnson will receive the vote of the California delegation for the Republican presidential nomination next year, and that Senator James D. Phelan, Democrat, is stronger with the people of California than ever before, were assertions made by Mr. Jordon, discussing the political situation in his state.

"Senator Johnson will undoubtedly have the support of the California delegation to the next Republican national convention," he said. "There will be no opposition."

"The senatorial contest next year will be an interesting one. While California is normally Republican, the voters are not hidebound and often break away, the Democrats being beneficiaries."

Senator Phelan will be up for reelection. That is certain and it is true that he is much stronger today than four years ago. He has made a host of friends by his businesslike attention to the requests of his constituents. He is a Californian first and a partisan afterwards. His stand on the Japanese question and his defense of the oil and agricultural interests in his native state will never be forgotten. It will probably be a three cornered fight, but no matter what the final line-up is, he will be formidable antagonist and those opposing him will have a battle-royal on their hands."

The Amazon.

The Amazon discharges the largest amount of water of any river in the world, and the St. Lawrence next. Other interesting facts about these rivers are that the length of the Amazon is 3,300 miles and its width varies from a few hundred feet at different points to more than 100 miles at its mouth. The St. Lawrence is 2,200 miles in length, is from one to several miles wide at places, and ninety miles at its mouth.

Clothing Prices to Go Up For a Year Yet, the Clothing Dealers Assert

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 19.—"We are all making money in spite of ticklish business conditions, but our profits are not excessive."

That summarizes the testimony of a dozen leading dealers in men's clothing before the state fair price committee yesterday at the federal building.

"An 8 per cent profit on total volume of business done was the largest we ever made in the history of my store," declared one merchant, and the others nodded assent.

Industrial Unrest Cited.

C. H. Russell, acting price administrator, presiding at the meeting, placed emphasis in his opening remarks on the industrial unrest all over the country, and declared that price reduction is necessary.

"We did not call you here to accuse you of profiteering, but simply to ask you reasonable questions," he said. "I wish to caution you, however, that it is extremely advisable to make concessions in prices as far as possible to pacify a dissatisfied public. You must show the public that business is anxious to do its part in getting the markets back to normal conditions."

Profit Margin Not Increased.

The merchants testified that they were selling their goods at virtually the same margin of profit as several years ago. The cost of goods from the manufacturers was about twice what it was formerly, the price of wages was doubled, they said, and in consequence the selling price was greatly advanced. On many articles, they said, their profit was far less than formerly, because they did not "have the nerve" to ask the public for what the cost of the articles would justify.

Prices will continue to advance for at least a year the merchants agreed in predicting. Reasons assigned for this were the high wages paid garment makers, the scarcity of labor and the presence of bidders from foreign countries in the woolen goods market. A reaction will come in the fall of 1920, they told the committee, after which conditions will approach normal.

New York Clothiers to Lose.

The suggestion that the clothing makers and wholesalers were exacting extortionate prices for their goods and so inflating prices was denied emphatically, virtually every clothing manufacturer in New York will lose money this fall because of the demands of labor, according to one merchant who visited New York recently.

Goods are being sold by merchants at present much less than the cost of replacing the goods from wholesale dealers, the dealers told the committee. Suits carried over from a previous season are sold for $25, they said, which cannot be bought now from the manufacturer for less than $29. Overalls are sold for $2.50 a pair which now cost $2.75 from the manufacturer.

They Prosper Though.

In the midst of constant reference to the difficulties of business operation, however, the merchants showed that they were prospering. They told of the difficulties of obtaining goods, and at the same time of the great demand for goods of high quality and price. They told of the reduction of profits on individual sales and of the increase in the number of sales. At all times they declared with emphasis that their profits were no more than a fair and reasonable return from the capital invested and the labor and risk involved.

Large Army Is Required, Says War Secretary

By News' Special Service

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—"The disturbed state of the world" demands that the United States maintain a large army, Secretary of War Baker told the military affairs committee of the senate yesterday when he appeared before it in behalf of the army reorganization bill providing for a permanent army with an enlisted personnel of approximately 507,000.

"The disturbed state of the world is one that no imagination can express," Secretary Baker said. "I would not feel that I would be doing my duty unless I strongly recommended the maintenance of a sufficiently large army."

"I feel a certain hesitancy in discussing the size of the army," Secretary Baker said. "Our suggestion is that the number of men in this bill provides for a balanced army so that if the emergency comes our problem will be to multiply rather than add to the existing force. Whether the number selected is absolutely necessary, I am not able to say now."

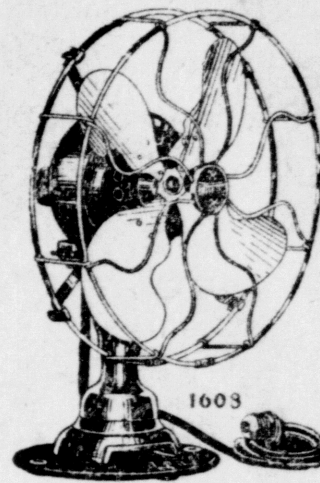

With regard to the proposed reorganization, Secretary Baker said he was still studying the situation and that the proposed bill does not incorporate his "final views."

"The new army must be a more useful army than the old army," Secretary Baker declared.

"Regarding our military policy I believe that the people are going to insist on having an army more useful than heretofore," he said. "A good deal of time of the army in the past was spent in unproductive idleness. The country will not stand for that sort of thing and the soldiers will not stand for it."

Secretary Baker advocated a bill which would make the army an educational institution and favored the proposed system of universal military education.

PALMER WOULD JAIL FOOD SHARKS

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS THAT PROFITTEERING IS A CRIME TO BE PUNISHED.

By News' Special Service

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Attorney General Palmer, addressing the fair price committee last night appealed for aid in sending to jail "unconscious profiteers" in the necessities of life. He said he had come from Washington to give instructions for conducting the campaign here for fair prices, because "New York is the natural leader in this movement and the eyes of the nation are fixed upon it."

"The prices set by fair price committees will be accepted as standard," said Mr. Palmer, "and charges in excess of those prices will be prima facie evidence of profiteering."

"I am trying to have congress pass a law which will make profiteering a crime. It is not now a crime unless two or more persons combine to do it. Hoarding, however, already is a crime. I want the penalty for profiteering the same as for hoarding. A maximum fine of $5,000 and two years in prison. To my mind a prison sentence is very, very much more effective than a fine."

"As fast as evidence of profiteering is found it is to be turned over to the Washington authorities so that action can be taken, but the fair price committee will use the club of publicity."

"Fair price committees are to meet this high cost of living situation with the understanding that their work is fully as important as was their work during the war. In general, these committees are to fix local prices fair to the seller and to the purchaser and while there is nothing 'legal' about them, it is the community judgment that will count and that will be reflected in a jury box—and we will get them before a jury."

Even if the committees cannot actually cut prices down. Mr. Palmer said, he felt their action would keep them from advancing and that meant prices would sag and begin to go down as soon as "natural forces" began to operate. This, he said, would put a stop "to this vicious circle of high price causes which is like a dog chasing his tail."

"While food prices are up wages cannot be reduced and while wages are advancing it is hard to lower food costs, so if the committees can hold prices steady for a while, the reforms will come naturally," he declared, adding:

"And if we cannot get the New York dealers to blackball the crooks amongst us, then we can't get anything done anywhere else."

He went on to say he believed a large part of the high cost of living is due to unconscionable dealers who have taken advantage of abnormal economic conditions to gouge the public.

FALL STYLES COME

Fashion Authority Tells of the Advance Guard.

American Coat Suits Excel the French Models in Both Style and Beauty.

While it may seem a little early to speak of fashions to come when all of us are still concerned with what is worn at this moment, the fact that the past month has brought so many buyers back from Europe makes the consideration of fall effects not only timely, but interesting as well, observes a fashion authority.

For the first time in several years many houses have returned to their pre-war custom of sending representatives abroad, and we are told that the Paris shops are so filled with shoppers that one is given a check with a number on it so that one has to wait one's turn to be served.

However beautiful the French dresses and gowns may be, the fact remains that the American coat suits outstrip them in style and beauty also. Perhaps this is because no other women wear coat suits quite so successfully as do the American. We need not look abroad, therefore, for cut and design of our winter suits, although we may accept the lovely fabrics gratefully.

It is said that our American makers promise longer skirts and therefore a three-quarter coat to top them. The kimono sleeve is looming up to replace the recent tight shoulders and snug skin-tight sleeve. A new collar, saucer shaped, is here, out of which we will lift our chins as we were not able to do with the high straight-around affairs. The saucer collar fits closely around the throat and at the top has a wider piece so made that it stands out and away from the face in saucer fashion. It is often lined with a shade contrasting well with the color of the coat.

Much embroidery is to be used, we hear, and buttons, too, and flying panels to give length. Indeed, some of these panels are most interesting, for they float away apparently without rhyme or reason from the top of the coat, but are really stoles to throw around the neck and shoulders to give extra warmth. Now and then they are fitted on the underside with pockets of fur for the hands.

The pocket seems to be the supreme ornament and is often a huge patch of fur or a tiny slit in the side of the skirt or the coat. Whatever the coat, cape wrap or one-piece dress may otherwise be or have, be sure the pocket is there somewhere. The vest will probably disappear, as it has been rather overdone and we have tired of it. In its place I fear we will have an influx of the Russian blouse or Cossack coat since the manufacturers' first showing of models seems all to present the full overhanging waist effect easily obtained in this style of coat. The belt and sash will, doubtless, because of this trend, play as important a part as the pocket.

Fall Cloaks Have Flowing Lines

The cape, pure and simple, having had its day of high favor, must pass on to make place for cloaks and coats more novel. But the cape is graceful and practical; a garment that women love to wear and manufacturers have capitalized their fondness for it by turning out new garments that preserve its flowing lines. These new styles, at first glance, are very cape-like. They are long and ample, with sleeves that are merely continuations of drapery. Their collars are managed in a variety of clever ways, and some of them are collarless, while others are so amply supplied with this accessory that it becomes the dominant feature of their style.

The cape, unmodified, is never wholly absent, and is represented this season in handsome evening wraps of silk. Also there are fur capes that are guileless of sleeves, that will play their usual part in adding to the richness of fall and winter costumes, and the owner of a fine cloth cape need not feel that it is antiquated.

But the purchaser of a new cloak will be likely to buy something similar to the very attractive garment shown in the picture in which a full capelike body is set on to a plain, deep yoke. The coat hangs straight in the back and is weighted with rows of covered buttons that make an excellent ornament. They are used to finish the deep, turned-back cuffs and the front of the coat, their neat precision of arrangement lending the charm of fine tailoring to this tasteful model.

In place of a collar a satin scarf with fringed ends makes protection for the neck when it is needed. Soft wool velours, pile fabrics, broadcloth and heavy woolsens in new weaves are used for making the new cloaks for practical wear. The tendency in weaving is toward more complicated cloths than were made in war times. For evening satin and velvet are unrivaled, but there are attractive taffeta wraps that must not be overlooked.

MICKIE SAYS

"JUST LIKE A LETTER FROM HOME" THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY "MICKIE"

WE had a complaint today in regard to charging 20c for 25 pounds of ice; if this has been done it was a mistake on the part of the driver, as we do not want you to pay more than our schedule rate.

Twenty-five pounds of ice at 70 cents per 100 pounds would be 17½ cents, and the driver could probably not make change for this amount.

The driver should give you about thirty pounds for 20 cents. Let me suggest, therefore, coupons would be considerably cheaper, that coupons be used—this would make 25 pounds of ice cost you 16 2-3 cents.

We have delivered written instructions to our drivers to discontinue this practice and to give back even change, as near as possible, where 25 pounds of ice is necessary.

Do your Jams and Jellies ever "Candy"?

Many women have been so discouraged by this trouble that they have almost stopped putting up fruit.

Yet, there is an easy, simple way to avoid it. Use ½ Karo (Red Label) and ½ sugar in your preserving syrup, instead of sugar alone.

Karo is a fine, clear syrup, with a natural affinity for the juices of the fruit.

It blends the sugar with the fruit juice—brings out all the "fruity" flavor.

You, too, will obtain perfect results this summer if you will use ½ Karo (Red Label) and ½ sugar instead of all sugar for preserving.

You will find your jelly clear and firm—your preserves rich with heavy syrup—your jams deliciously mellow and "fruity". Not a sign of "candyng".

For Cooking, Baking and Candy-Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

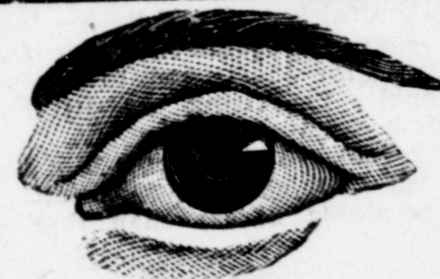

Use ½ Karo (red label) and ½ sugar

Makes perfect jams, jellies and preserves.

How One Real Estate Man Secures Prospects

Right now hundreds of people are ready and anxious to buy good property. They are desirous of getting in touch with real estate men who handle desirable properties.

Some real estate agents have already discovered the quick, easy, satisfactory way to become acquainted with house-hunting, land-hungry folks. They advertise, of course—but HOW?

Here is one man's secret: "My advertisements are carefully written to avoid that dry, dusty style which some agents use. I get BIG results from every advertisement I use, because they are written with a HUMAN appeal."

Here is the wrong way to write an ad:

SINGLE HOUSE—6 rooms and bath, $5,600. Terms.

Here is a better way to write it:

SINGLE HOUSE, in beautiful suburb; house is vine-covered, 3 beautiful trees on lawn; 6 large rooms, hardwood floors; prettiest house on the street; built three years ago for a business man of taste and judgment, who has left to live in New York; this is a real home; if you want to see it, telephone for appointment; price is only $6,000—a bargain in every sense of the word.

NEWS WANT ADS, properly used, will increase your sales surprisingly. Telephone and the advertising representative will call. Phone 4—The Want Ad Phone.

WHERE A DOLLAR IS NOT A DOLLAR

What has become of the old-fashioned doctrine concerning the stability of the dollar? Why is it that we no longer hear of a dollar "that is good anywhere in the world?" Strange it is that the most debatable of all questions just now is whether a dollar is worth two dollars or worth only fifty cents.

The man who has something to sell is tempted to believe that one little dollar has appreciated considerably during the past few years, while the man who undertakes to buy something will probably think that the dollar has so depreciated in value as to be worth almost nothing. The man who works for wages or draws a salary denies that a dollar is a man's best friend and is prepared to assert that it has long since become man's worst enemy.

The wage earner who compares his 1919 pay-check with the one he got way back in 1907 may think for a moment that he is getting along in the world, but when he measures his wages by the standard of food instead of money he sees at once that he is going down instead of up and that the poor-house is just around the corner.

Since 1907 wages have advanced by the monetary standard from 100 to 141. In other words, he now gets $1.41 instead of the $1.00 he got twelve years ago. But the monetary standard is a treacherous guide, for during the same dozen years a dollar's worth of food has jumped in price to $2.05. The price of food has more than doubled while the price of labor has increased less than one-half. So the REAL WAGES of the wage earner (bread and meat) have not gone up, but have instead gone down. Measured by the standard of the stomach, wages have fallen from 100 down to slightly less than 69.

And while his stomach wages have fallen down to the 69 point, his FOOT wages have fallen to 44, and his BACK wages also to 44. Shoes and clothing have gone from 100 to 227, which makes the wage earner's dollar worth only 44 cents. His monetary dollar having advanced only 41 cents, leaves him exactly 86 cents behind in his financial game of hide-and-seek. The wage-earner may not be good enough mathematician to figure out just what has hit him, but he knows enough about anatomy to realize that his stomach is growing empty and his cuticle is growing cold.

The existing condition fitly illustrates the truth of what economists have taught for centuries; to-wit, that wages are the last thing to go up during a boom and the first thing to fall during a panic. So long as our population was predominantly rural and the number of wage-earners comparatively few, little attention was paid to the matter of relative wages. But since our population has become predominantly urban and wage-earners are numbered by the millions, the matter of relative wages presents a grave national problem. And unfortunately the crisis finds few of us with an adequate remedy. All of us are full of suggestions, but none of us know what to do.

The tattler is one worker who never observes union hours and never goes on a strike.

The recent confirmation of the nomination of John Fain of Lawton for a second term as United States attorney for the western district is a distinct personal victory for the United States senator from Lawton. The nomination of Fain was strenuously opposed by the labor leaders of Oklahoma City, who resented the recent arrest of some strike pickets in the capital city by order of Mr. Fain. It was believed for a time that his nomination might be rejected by the senate, but Fain is the close personal friend of Senator Gore, who supported him loyally four years ago and by standing pat on his recent nomination secured his prompt confirmation.

The splendid rains of Saturday night and Sunday night made a noise like a big cotton crop. A record-breaking crop of wheat, oats and hay has already been harvested. A record corn crop is already made. The recent rains almost, if not quite, assure a heavy cotton crop. With splendid harvests and splendid prices the outlook for the farmer is most flattering, and such conditions go far to mitigate the evils of tenantry in this section of Oklahoma.

RABBIT INDUSTRY BIG THING AT ARMORE

By the Associated Press
ARMORE, Ok., Aug. 20.—Soon the rabbit will vie with the chicken for supremacy of Ardmore's back yards, if plans of a recently organized county rabbit breeders' association are fulfilled.

With the increased cost of living demanding more and more attention, the organization has decided to start a campaign to encourage the raising of rabbits in city back yards. The objects of the association are three-fold; to promote the raising of rabbits for food, to teach the people how to feed and care for them, and to interest the public in raising the different breeds.

It is declared the rabbit is a better food than chicken, and that its food value is higher than that of chicken.

Mayor Kitchens has set aside next Friday as "Clean-Up Day" in Ada and proposes to make the clean-up campaign the most rigid the city ever saw. All citizens are required to cut the weeds about their premises and collect all the trash and refuse that they can find and pile the same where the wagons can collect it and haul it away.

All weeds and trash which can be burned should be burned. Only that which cannot be burned is to be hauled away.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce will have charge of the work of informing every citizen of the campaign and will probably make a house-to-house canvass to impress upon everyone the necessity of a clean-up at this time.

Inasmuch as it is now predicted that another epidemic of influenza will visit the country next winter it becomes imperative that every precaution be taken to guard against another epidemic such as visited Ada last winter. Then the recent rains mean a quick invasion of mosquitoes with their accompaniment of malaria unless the weeds and other breeding places of the pests be removed. It is vitally important that citizens employ every means to clean-up the city.

Mayor Kitchens states that the wagons will start Friday morning at 8 o'clock and he urges everyone to have his trash ready for removal.

A. P. Ray arrived home this morning with his honorable discharge after a service of two years in the United States navy. Ray was eleven months with the old ship, Destroyer Israel, on European waters.

PRINCE OF WALES, HEIR TO BRITISH THRONE, HAS ARRIVED IN AMERICA

A typical pose of the heir to the British throne as he appeared in uniform during the European war. Total absence of royal decorations marked the departure of the Prince from the Victoria Station in London. Queen Mary affectionately kissed her son good-by, while King George and the brothers shook hands, wishing the Prince a happy voyage. The voyage across the Atlantic was made on the British battleship Renown.

Prayer meeting First Baptist Church tonight. Everybody invited. 8-20-11

Tilman Shelton returned this morning from a brief business trip to Oklahoma City.

New members urged to be present at the prayer meeting tonight at First Baptist Church. 8-20-11

Misses Bell Bronaugh and Naomi Coon are spending the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bronaugh and family at Roff.

Sheriff Bob Duncan and County Attorney Wayne Wadlington made an overland trip to Allen yesterday where they transacted legal business.

Mrs. M. Bills, 715 South Broadway, has as her guests, her mother and sister, respectively, Mrs. A. Fulton of Dallas, Tex., and Mrs. J. A. Taylor of Amarillo, Texas.

Messrs. Raymond and Lorenz Fisher, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., arrived this afternoon for a visit to their aunt, Mrs. J. B. Emory and family, 116 East Fifteenth.

The infant son of Roy Johnson died yesterday evening at the family home at 321 West Fifth St. Interment was had this afternoon at Rosedale cemetery at 2 o'clock.

Earl Dawson, who has been in the Motor Transport Corps of the United States army for the past fourteen months and ten months overseas, returned this afternoon with his discharge.

Henry Clark, who has been working in the harvest for the past six weeks in the Western part of the state reports the crops in that section of the country, the best they have had for years.

H. P. Long of Ardmore who is an old Confederate veteran, arrived this morning for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Carr, and to remain over until the three days' reunion of the veterans.

Powell West son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard West, returned yesterday from a two years' service in the United States Navy. West was a printer at the News office before his entrance into the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bullard, who have been visiting Mrs. Bullard's parents in the western part of Oklahoma for the past three weeks, returned home yesterday accompanied by Mrs. Bullard's cousin, Miss Jewell Wilson of Purcell.

W. W. Barnett, formerly of the Rollow Hardware Company, but who, with his wife and little daughter, has been visiting friends and relatives at Ardmore and Wynnewood for the past few weeks, is in the city today looking after business matters.

F. F. Brydia and wife and little daughter and Wanda Brown drove thru to Oklahoma City this afternoon to be there tomorrow for the Shriner's picnic. The city is dressed in gay colors for these visitors and Belle Isle has been set aside as headquarters for their entertainment.

Miss Pearl Hall of Wichita, Kan., has been employed as Secretary at East Central. She will take up her duties at that institution next Thursday, the 28th. Miss Hall comes here highly recommended from a business college at Wichita of which she was assistant teacher.

J. S. Savage of Center was in Ada today with a load of Elberta peaches and brought to the News office some of the finest peaches we have ever seen. Mr. Savage was not able to bring many samples to the News for the reason that the people bought his peaches as soon as they got a look at them. They were really superb specimens and would make a fine exhibit at the county fair next month, if they could be kept properly.

Everybody and their dogs are cordially invited to hear the band concert tomorrow night at 9 o'clock on the corner of Main and Broadway. The band has been practicing each week during this hot sticky weather, in order to improve their work and the general public should show their appreciation by appearing on the scene tomorrow night at the given time and place.

Supt. Floyd started to the country this morning to make his customary visit to schools but only got about five miles from the city when the threatening rain clouds turned him back in his course. Mr. Floyd visited the schools at Homer, Conway and Lovelady yesterday. Mrs. Eva Miller and Miss Fannie Cooper are the teachers at Homer, and the county superintendent spoke very highly of their work at that place and the improvements that have been made in the way of new seats, new desks, book cases and sanitary drinking fountains. At Lovelady, Mrs. Nell Wall and Miss Johnnie McHahan are employed as teachers, their work was also complimented by the superintendent. Their school is progressing nicely with a good attendance and good interest. Mr. Homer Miller is teaching at Conway.

THE S. A. STORE DOES BIG WORK

From 600 to 1,000 men placed in positions every year is the record of one of the smallest institutions in Dallas, Texas—smallest that is in size of the building occupied not in work accomplished—the little Salvation Army Store at 1515 Bryan street. This store occupying a small twenty foot front shed is visited daily by scores of the Dallas poor. Adjutant John Wood who is in charge estimates the number patronizing the Store every day at from 60 to 100. Because of its contact with so many men who are out of work, calls are made on the Store when all kinds of help are wanted. But placing men in jobs is not the main purpose of this Store. It gathers up old clothes, magazines, furniture, everything that may have a second-hand value. The books are sent to cheer up the soldiers in the lonely army posts on the border—over 600 have been sent down in the last six months. The magazines and old newspapers are sold to the waste mills. The old clothes and furniture are fumigated, sorted over and then displayed for sale in the little Store.

Just enough is charged for these things to cover the expenses of the Store. The fact that even a nominal price is charged keeps the Store from being regarded as a charitable institution by the poor themselves. They are able to patronize it with no loss of self-respect when they can feel that they are paying for what they get. Even the street laborer with his wages of $2 and $2.50 a day can outfit his family at a cost of a few cents a garment. A woman's dress costs twenty-five cents, a child's fifteen, and shoes cost from ten cents to fifty cents. A man's shirt costs only fifteen cents and collars and cravats are given away.

An old trunk of collars stands near the door ready for all the men who need them. "Many a job has been gotten out of that trunk of collars," Mrs. Wood said the other day. "Men come in here who cannot get a job as long as they are dirty, and yet they have no money to buy clean clothes. We tell them to help themselves to a collar and a tie and we give them a clean shirt if we have one. Often they ask to put them on in our little back room. Then they go out, looking neat and soon find work."

Whenever a poor person comes into the store who is not able to pay for the things he needs, Adjutant or Mrs. Wood insist upon giving them the necessary articles without the payment of the small price. No money is ever accepted from cripples. These people are told to save their money for a time of need.

No charge is ever made for the food which is often donated. The other day a baker gave 200 loaves of bread which had been left over from Saturday until Monday. This bread was stacked on the counters of the store and everyone coming in was told to help himself.

With the general extension of Salvation Army work throughout the country, it is planned to establish such second-hand stores as the one in Dallas in all cities of Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana where an Army Corps is established and which is big enough to maintain such a store. The only other store in this territory at present is located at Fort Worth, Texas.

LOST PERSONS SOUGHT BY SALVATION ARMY

Because the Salvation Army has working bodies of men and women in sixty countries and more than 150,000 men and women actively engaged in the work the Salvation Army is one of the most successful agencies when it comes to finding people who are lost. Missing Friends departments are maintained in every corps, of which there are 970 in the United States alone.

Every case reported is advertised in the War Cry with the picture of the lost person and a full description. The names of the persons advertised in a recent issue of the Cry indicate the scope of this work: Johan Gustavsen Raanerud, born in Vaale, Jarlsberg; Anthony Curda, Bohemia; Mary Elizabeth Milligan of Oldham, England; Charles Zink, "The Scanton Kid"; Fred Borsten of Holland; Hendrick Oostindie of Holland; Leopold Cohen of Cape Town, South Africa; Harry Potter of England; Theodore Lange of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Arthur Franklin Adams of the United States; Andreas Karl Lauritz of Denmark; John Louis Kills of Wyoming; Nilson Carl Anderin of Chicago; C. J. Klaskerud, of the United States, and Clyde Morris Alton of Dallas, Texas.

These people are sought by friends, anxious parents, executors of estates. Scores of them are traced every year and their relatives notified as to their whereabouts. Clyde Morris Alton of Dallas is a boy sixteen who ran away from home in January of 1918. Since he left home his family know that he has worked as a cabin boy, common sailor, engine-wiper, and then as a coal-passer. His parents are lonesome without him.

During the war the Salvation Army created a sub-department of its Missing Friends Bureau and called it the Missing Soldiers Bureau. Often 100 inquiries were received daily. Many of these missing soldiers were traced through this department.

First Baptist Baptizing.

Last evening the basement of the First Baptist church was the scene of another large baptizing when Rev. C. C. Morris, the pastor, baptized forty-five people. Eight of these were baptized into the fellowship of the Second Baptist church.

Following is a list of those baptized into First Baptist church:

Mrs. Artie White.

At the close of the service Sunday night the ordinance of baptism will be administered to Mrs. R. E. Brians and others.

The hand of church fellowship will be given Sunday morning to all who have united with the First Baptist church during the meeting.

First Christian Church.

Every member of the First Christian Church is urged to be present at prayer meeting tonight at 8:30. The meeting will begin on time and last just one hour. New converts are especially invited. There is no place so good to spend an hour in the middle of the week as a prayer meeting. Those who have not yet been baptized are asked to come and be baptized this evening just following the prayer service. An opportunity will also be given to anyone who desires to unite with the church either by letter or statement. An invitation will be extended and anyone desiring to confess Christ will be given an opportunity of doing so. Let the meeting tonight be the beginning of larger things in the First Christian Church in Ada. There are one hundred people expected to be present at this meeting. Come and be one of them.

Miss Mabel Clark, who is teaching at Franks, has returned to her school after a few days visit to her mother, Mrs. Henry Clark. She reports a good attendance and interest in their school. Prof. Howard is principal and Miss Clark assistant.

Resolution Number 305.

A Resolution Relating to the Purchase of Personal Property in Excess of the Value of One Thousand Dollars and not to Exceed Three Thousand Dollars.

Whereas, it appears to the Board of Commissioners that there is at present a great amount of grading to be done upon the streets of the city, and that said grading can be done more economically with a tractor engine than by other means, and,

Whereas, it appears to the best interest of the city to purchase a new tractor engine for the purpose above mentioned,

Now Therefore Be It Resolved by the Board of Commissioners that from and after the expiration of thirty days from the date of passage and publication of this resolution as required by the charter of the city of Ada the proper officers of the city be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into a contract of purchase and purchase a tractor engine for the city at the most reasonable terms possible, which in no event is to exceed the sum of three thousand dollars.

Be it further resolved that this resolution be published for such time as by the charter of the city required.

Passed by the Board of Commissioners and approved this 19th day of August, 1919.

MANY ARE GOING TO BIG AD. CLUB MEET

CONVENTION AT NEW ORLEANS
SEPT. 21-25—IMPORTANT
TO ALL BUSINESS MEN.

By News' Special Service

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The value of advertising—its power to create sales—is being recognized by an increasing number of business men in every conceivable line of legitimate commercial activity, declared P. S. Florea, executive manager of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, today, in discussing the forthcoming convention of the advertising association in New Orleans, Sept. 21 to 25.

"We would ask no better indication of this," said Mr. Florea, "than a check-up on the advertising columns of the newspapers and other publications of various cities. Old advertisers are using more space, as a rule, and new advertisers are appearing, because advertising pays them. They know better how to use advertising."

"But we have evidence that this increase of interest in the use of advertising is not confined to those cities where the matter has been checked up. We know that there is a general increase in interest for never in the history of this Association has there been such interest in an advertising convention as has been manifested in the New Orleans meeting in September."

A special train from New York City has already been assured, Mr. Florea announced, and there seems some doubt, now, that one train will carry all the New Yorkers who want to attend. Another special train will run from Texas, and another from Indiana, people of the latter state being especially interested because Indianapolis is after the 1920 convention of the association, Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, Boston and many other cities have indicated that they will send record breaking delegations, and a party of twenty business men has already been assured from San Francisco, despite the distance.

When surprise was expressed that men traveled so far to attend these advertising conventions, Mr. Florea said: "Why there will be men there who have traveled 10,000 miles to attend. We have had cable messages for hotel reservations from men as far away as Australia. The Advertising Club of

To Wash a White Sweater.

Dissolve one level tablespoonful of borax and one-fourth of a cake of white soap in cold water to cover the sweater generously. Let soak an hour, then squeeze it out, but do not wring. Rinse very thoroughly through several cold waters, then squeeze as dry as possible (or put through the wringer), pull it into shape and dry it. All wool flannels and blankets are safely washed thus.

When drawing thread from linen rub white soap on the cloth and the work will be much more easily accomplished. When making eyelet embroidery, if a piece of white soap is held under the material and the siletto is allowed to pass into it a much better eyelet can be made, as the soap gives a slight stiffness to the cloth.

Packing a Blouse.

Much difficulty is often found in packing blouses. If folded in the following way, they can lie, closely packed, for a long time without looking crushed when taken out to wear. Lay flat on the table, front down, and fasten. Then fold back the sleeves, and pin to the blouse at the top and at the cuff to keep in position. Now fold back the foot of the blouse at the waistline, and pin to make secure.

Medicine Stains.

As most medicines, especially tinctures, are soluble in alcohol, methy-lated spirits will often remove the stains from clothes and other utensils. When stains contain silver compounds (to this class belong paints for warts, the throat and nose), any white fabric on which a little compound has been spilt acts like a piece of sensitized paper, and at once darkens on exposure to the light. An effective method is to soak the stain for some time in a tincture of iodine, then treat with a strong solution of hyposulphate of soda; strong ammonia will then complete the process. Medicine stains very often yield to alcohol. These stains frequently leave terrible disfiguring discolorations on table bed linen, and not uncommonly also result in iron mold. They should be spread with a paste made of pulverized fuller's earth and spirits of hartshorn, allowing the application to dry upon the stain, and finally washing out in cold water. If necessary, the treatment may then be repeated, but one trial is generally sufficient.

To remove medicine stains from spoons, rub first with a soft rag dipped in sulphuric acid, wash with soap-suds and polish with a chamois skin.

SALVATION ARMY TAKES OVER SALOON

The new Salvation Army hut in Vancouver, Washington, has been built on the site of "The First and Last Chance" saloon which flourished in the frontier days of the town and which was the scene of many historic brawls and prize fights.

The citizens of Vancouver seemed to welcome the change as the Mayor of the city, G. H. Percival presided at the opening ceremonies and co-operation was pledged by all other welfare organizations in the city.

ARMY POST NEWS

From Fort Sill, Oklahoma

The open air show given by the 14th Field Artillery under the management of Major Stewart McLeod and Trevor Faulkner. Two fast boxing bouts were staged which were adjudged draws. Campbell and La-data of the 9th Field gave a boxing demonstration and Mr. Becker and Kid Benson of the 9th exhibited wrestling as an art. Other features were Mrs. Major Edward W. Austin, comedienne, Miss Myr McLure, popular songs and the Imperial Y. M. C. A. quartette. Over a thousand attendance and every one spent a pleasant evening.

Enlistments for the Air Service for the Philippines has been discontinued. A tennis tournament has been started at Post Field. Games will be played every Wednesday. A cup will be given to the winner of the singles. Lieut. Burns, athletic director, will start a doubles and ladies tournament later on.

The Ft. Sill recruiting parties are submitting reports that show a steady run of enlistments. The 4th party has secured 22 recruits and the 5th party has 30 acceptances within the last six weeks.

The Khaki College has an enrollment of 250 students. When the hot summer days are over the numbers will reach close to the 500 mark. Ft. Sill has the honor of being the largest vocational training camp in the U. S. Army. Watch it grow.

Two fast and exciting base ball games were played here last week. The 14th F. A. won from the 1st Field team 6 to 2. Post Field put a stop to the artillerymen's franties by stealing one from the 14th, 9 to 4.

The work on the new Liberty Theater building was delayed several days by a strike called by the federal labor union. It is expected to be completed by fall.

Secretary of War directs that communications relative to the subject of Victory buttons be answered in effect that any soldier who was on active duty at any time between April 6, 1917, and Nov. 11, 1918, and has been furloughed to the regular army reserve is entitled to a Victory button.

The War Camp Community Service which was to have been discontinued here Sept. 1, will be continued instead thru September and October and possibly until January 1. It is planned to take over work for the regular army.

The swimming pool north of the new Post is in constant use. After the days' work the old familiar cry is heard: "Goin' swimmin'!"

With the arrival of the Guards and numerous visitors who spent pleasant sojourns at Medicine Park, the Post has the appearance of its self. It will remind us of the old war days, line up every place.

Any discharged men who wish to may enlist in the organization from which they were discharged. Information may be obtained at any recruiting office, relative to enlistment for special assignment to any organization of the regular army for former members of that organization.

Steady Steadman, our lightweight champ, will be out of the ring for a short time owing to an injury to his hand. That layoff will only make him more eager to hand over the K. O. to the next contender.

The Post Field ball team leaves today for Waurika to play the team representing that city. Ten airplanes will make the trip, led by Col. Barnitz, commandant of Post Field. J. A. Russell, educational secretary for the Y. M. C. A., has left for his home at Clarendon, Texas. He originated the central school idea which attracted the attention of the general staff at Washington.

A SHIFTLSS HOUSEKEEPER COUNTRY'S WORST ENEMY

Ham, the evangelist, recently declared that the worst criminals in Ada are the women who play bridge. If he were better acquainted with the social and civic conditions of this city he would have to admit that, "If the worst criminals in Ada are women," the careless, thoughtless, dirty housewife is surely it.

The wife who has a dirty house, a dirty, neglected yard, neglected children, who wastes the food her husband must pay for, squanders his money and spends her time at the back door or across the street gossiping with her neighbors, and fails to prepare proper meals at the proper time, has much to answer for in this world and the world to come.

Following filth, neglect, flies, all kinds of sickness, filthbred, besets the poor little children of such a woman and too often a little white casket is borne from her door. Such a woman is not only the worst enemy of her own children but she is a menace to the neighborhood and the entire city.

In Old England straw was used for thatching the roof, and one of the housewife's duties was to keep the leaks stopped. There is an old rhyme that reads:

"Three things that drive a man from home;
A roof that leaks, a house that reeks,
And a woman who scolds whenever she speaks."

Nowadays we expect the housewife to keep her home neat and clean, the clothes washed and mended, the children clean and in sanitary surroundings, and prepare three wholesome meals. In what possible way could she better employ her time?

With order and system many women do all these things and yet find time to visit, shop, attend church, Sunday School and even time for parties and luncheons.

The woman who goes for a few hours recreation to a bridge party well groomed and dainty, her home clean and cheerful, places her children in the hands of some responsible person, will, ten to one, leave a well planned luncheon for the family, and it is upon this woman that this nation will have to look for a solution of the H. C. of L. problem.

It is she who can tell you the price and value of foodstuffs and it is upon her that the various committees who are trying to reach some kind of solution for the great problem must depend. She can make more accurate reports and can tell more positively who is profiteering and on what.

The truth about the matter is that the club women of a town are always the best informed, the best read, the best instructed in domestic science and home economics, and as a rule are better fitted for church work or social welfare for they plan their work with some system.

Mr. Ham should study the story of Mary and Martha. Mary learned Jesus was coming for a visit and began in an orderly manner to prepare the household for His coming that she might have a long visit with Him while Martha did nothing but stew and fuss and did not have a moment to visit with the Master.

The bridge player is not necessarily the town's worst enemy.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture
Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theford's Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it!

Miami News: There is something harder to establish than a League of Nations—that is a concert among its Senatorial opponents.

Miami News: Why bother to try the packers if they are to be let off with a fine that may be collected from the pockets of the public?

Allen Hustler: We see where one paper likens the Chicago packer to Judas. Yes, but if we read right, even Judas grew ashamed and went out and hung himself.

Muskogee Times Democrat: In England the cotton operatives, miners, dockers, bakers and police are on strike, but the situation is not serious. The bar-maids haven't struck yet.

Muskogee Times Democrat: When your soul is uplifted with thoughts that you are getting to be an important citizen, just reflect concerning what happened to the kaiser and calm yourself.

Healdton Herald: It was Luther Harrison, of the Ada Star-Democrat, who coined the epigram: "If a man's patriotism has ever been discussed he's not a 100 per cent American." That's the best test in the world in selecting a new senator.

Durant Democrat: Though Socialist Representative Berger has not been allowed to take his seat in congress, he continues to draw his salary with regularity. Perhaps that is a cheap price for the country to pay for dispensing with his services.

Ardmoreite: Mr. Packer Morris denies that his concern has been keeping eggs in storage any longer than the law allows, but judging from certain specimens of hen produce which we have bought recently we arise to remark that most certainly somebody has been detaining eggs beyond the natural time limit.

Pittsburg County Guardian: An Oklahoma farmer declares he can run his Ford without gasoline. All he needs is a little crude oil. We don't doubt it. After a while some fellow will be navigating these cars with a compound of bran mash and alfalfa, with a little lightning oil for a starter.

Evening Capes Compel Our Loyalty

Whatever may be the fate of the cape for daytime wear its reign is not over, nor the end of it in sight, in the realm of evening wraps. Just as we begin to wonder if it will not have to abdicate in favor of something more novel, along comes some such compelling and conquering example of it, as that pictured above, and we join the ranks of its devotees and renew our loyalty at once. This wrap really deserves to be called gorgeous. It will prove a joy to its wearer, for it has all the qualities that will win her the admiration of those who have a fine sense of clothes.

It requires the sheen and body of heavy silk to get the character of this wrap, and it is made of taffeta, and plenty of it. It is gathered, with close rows of fine shirrings, with all possible fullness into a deep yoke and into three flounces at the bottom. The yoke is rich with bold leaf and flower designs in silk and metal threads, and the work in embroidery and shirrings is beautifully done. Such a wrap matches up well with the big, beautiful fan of ostrich feathers carried with it, and demands something unusual and lovely in the coiffure. Certain of the darker shades in warm colors make the best choice for this cape, or black with a colored lining might be selected for older women.

Black satin, always sure to command attention, and presented each season because it is sure of a welcome, appears now in long, draped, capelike garments with openings for the arms, something between a cape and a dolman. One of the new models has huge roses, as big as a large saucer, embroidered over its surface, with sapphire blue glass beads, and many a long, lingering look trails from the eyes that pass its way. A wrap made in the same way, but without the

Tub Hats, Too!

One of the advantages of the fabric hat, whether it is intended for the junior or the grownup, is that it may be so fashioned that it can be taken entirely apart and the covering washed or dry cleaned. A fine wire frame forms the foundation for the hat. It is covered with georgette cut in perfectly circular form and gathered in to form the crown. The edge may be finished with hemstitching or picotting, or with a fine narrow lace. The wire frame, of course, is concealed by a covering of this net in color to match the hat proper, or in white if the hat is made of a light colored material.

AUTO. MAN SLATED FOR AD. CLUB PRESIDENT

By News' Special Service

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—The Advertising Club of St. Paul has started a movement to elect F. A. Seiberling, president of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, when that Association meets in New Orleans for its annual convention, Sept. 21 to 25.

The suggestion of the St. Paul Club, it appears from a check-up of responses it has received, is meeting with general approval from other advertising clubs, and it appears that Mr. Seiberling will find a strong popular demand among the delegates to the advertising meeting, though St. Paul men explain that they have not consulted Mr. Seiberling. They plan to make the demand for his service at the head of the advertising association so strong that he cannot refuse.

The Goodyear and the other big tire companies of the country have taken the keenest interest in the work of the advertising association to prevent fraud in advertising, especially in the automotive industry for they realize that advertising has been the controlling factor in making the motor car the popular vehicle that it is.

An unusual number of automobile advertising men, and the salesmen of many of the big automobile and accessory companies, will attend the New Orleans convention the St. Paul club has found, because of their keen interest in the work of the advertising association to fight frauds in the automotive industry.

Let a Want Ad get it for you.

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING TODAY

LAY IT ON THE WOMEN—THEY ARE THE BUYERS—MEN ARE THE PRODUCERS.

Women should recognize the fact that housekeeping is a profession as truly as any other occupation, an occupation combining in most households the office of director and the work of a laborer.

This requires brain work and physical strength and endurance, and is the cause of so many failures—few women have both thinking ability and working capacity.

The average American housewife is a spender and often a thoughtless waster. It is said that on the average income of an American family an entire village of European housewives could provide well for their families, and each save enough money to pay passage for the family to America—the Land of Opportunity.

How would the European housewife do this? In her own way she will make a budget of the needs of her family and the amount she decides to save and she spends her income accordingly.

Some Ada housewives do this and fortunate is the man whose wife is a capable housekeeper.

Here is the report of a section hand's wife whose husband gets $72.00 a month:

Rent	.....	$12.50
Water	.....	1.00
Gas	.....	1.50
Life insurance	.....	5.00
Incidentals	.....	10.00

This leaves an average of $10.50 per person for the four members of the family for board, clothing, etc., for the month.

By studying the family needs and the cost of articles needed and buying the thing most needed first and buying according to income and station in life, this good woman has been able to "get by" without making debts.

She has a good garden and a few chickens, also a hog, which she feeds garden and kitchen waste. She does not keep a garbage can, says they are too expensive, says some families she knows throw more food in the garbage can than her family eats. She does not keep a cow because the cost of feed is too high.

This woman is a neat and careful housekeeper, she does the family washing, ironing and mending, and sewing and has had time this summer to earn $6 to $12 per week doing outside sewing and other work.

Her 12 year old daughter has helped a neighbor with housework this summer and earned her own clothes and enough money to buy her own school shoes.

This family is well and happy and do not complain of the high cost of living.

For recreation they go to church, once in a while to a good movie, visit friends and kinfolks, read and would enjoy a visit to a good park if Ada had one fixed up.

By way of contrast, a clerk who gets the same wages, $18 per week, told his budget of troubles to his grocery man. His wife wants to buy ready-made dresses at $25, $35 and up, each, a $40 baby buggy for the last of three children, wants to live in a $10 per week apartment, can't wash, iron, or sew, wants a nurse for the children if she has to cook and wash dishes.

How does this young man "get by?"

He simply owes everybody who will trust him and is worried about the high cost of living.

In inquiring among families near about, I find that monthly grocery bills where an account is kept by the family run from $25 to $36, not including meat, butter, eggs, and that the man whose wages are only $12 pays out just about as much for foodstuffs as the man whose salary runs from three to five times that amount, but the least complaint about high prices come from thoughtful, careful buyers who have the larger salaries.

As members of the fair price committee we urge that housewives be more conservative, that they insist on getting their money's worth and that they refuse to pay extortionate prices for foodstuffs.

It would save you money to take a basket and go down to the store and buy in person.

MRS. C. O. BARTON,
Fair Price Committee.

RICHARD REED BURIED AT TISHOMINGO

Richard Reed of the U. S. Naval Service, who was killed in France June 27, was buried at Tishomingo last week. Mr. Reed was the son of W. J. Reed, one of the original founders of Ada, and for whose daughter the city was named. Richard Reed lost his life in a railway accident in June while on his way from Brest to Paris. His remains were returned to his home at Tishomingo and buried last week. The family and relatives of Mr. Reed have the deep sympathy of the people of Ada, where he was reared.

TEXAS COTTON ACREAGE LESS

tion, the greatest cause was the enormous acreage, double in area planted to winter wheat last fall.

Many cotton growers early last spring threatened to turn their attention to a large extent to other crops than cotton unless they were assured of what they considered a fair price for their cotton.

In this connection Mr. Gray points out that while the estimated decrease in Texas was 10 per cent the federal bureau of crop estimates reported last month that the total cotton acreage was 33,960,000 compared with 37,207,000 planted last year or a reduction for all cotton states of 8.7 per cent. It was on this estimate that a total crop of 10,986,000 bales was forecast.

To Whom It May Concern, There seems to be a rumor afloat that I signed the agreement recently circulated in the city by the Citizens Alliance. I desire to inform the public that I did not sign the document in question.

S. I. TOBIAS,
8-20-11 Prop. the Union Store.

PRELIMINARY MEET OF DEFENSE COUNCIL

By News' Special Service
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 20.—A special meeting of the newly reorganized State Council of Defense, preliminary to the organization meeting to be held in the hall of the house of representatives, was held in the governor's office yesterday afternoon. The members of the council discussed plans for a general reorganization of the state and county councils.

Examples of "All-Day" Dresses

One-piece dresses, to be worn in place of suits in and out of doors, received a great boost during the war. When tailors became scarce and the work of making street clothes went into the hands of dressmakers in Paris, the one-piece "all-day" dress began to replace suits. With the approval of Paris upon it, this style of street dress made great headway in America and appears to have established itself. The all-day dress, as it is called, appears, together with new suits, in the early showings of fall styles, sometimes having much the appearance of a suit and sometimes wholly different from one. These two types are shown together in the picture above.

These dresses are made up in the same quiet colors and of the same materials as suits, although colors cover a wider range than are usually presented in suits, and there is more latitude in the matter of decorations.

The dress at the left of the picture simulates a suit so closely that it is misleading. It will interest the girl who must soon be outfitted for college, because it is a youthful model that will see her through the fall without a wrap and prove comfortable in cold weather with the aid of a coat.

It has the appearance of a suit with skirt and short box coat belted in. But the coat turns out to be only a bodice, with fronts lengthened below the narrow belt and disappearing at the sides under a seam in the skirt. It has a satin vest, prettily embroidered, and a few very large bone buttons emphasize its novel features. They are set along the side seams in which the jacket fronts lose themselves and on the odd lapels into which the collar lengthens. Wool velour is an ideal material for a dress of this kind.

The girl who aspires to look tall and slender should consider the long lines and simple composition of the dress at the right. The picture portrays it with so much fidelity that there is nothing that needs to be said about it. An underskirt of silk, with border of cloth, has the effect of a separate skirt, but the all-day dress is, above all things, convenient to put on, and this skirt is merely the lower part of a foundation that supports the dress. Any of the familiar and reliable wool suitings will serve to make these dresses.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT TO HELP INVESTIGATE

By News' Special Service
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 20.—H. R. Christopher, secretary of the reorganized state council of defense, which is making an investigation into the high cost of living, has accepted the offer of Dr. A. R. Lewis, state health commissioner, of the use of his entire staff of food and drug inspectors. "I feel that the inspectors of this department, who are in every part of the state, are in a splendid position to be of service in the profiteering probe," Commissioner Lewis wrote, "and I feel that the work well may come within the province of the state health department."

SALVATION ARMY TO WIND UP CAMPAIGNS

The Salvation Army will finish up its Home Service campaigns for 1919 in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Southwest Arkansas by the end of September, according to a statement just issued by Lieut. Col. George Wood who is in charge of Salvation Army activities in the Southwest.

During this intervening period Salvation Army Home Service campaigns will be put on in every county and community throughout this territory which has not already raised its assigned quota. These quotas have been determined on thirteen per cent per capita basis, except in the case of cities which are putting on building campaigns when the per capita allotment is determined by the local campaign committee.

Of the quotas assigned to the states in this territory, Texas has already raised $93,278.06 of a quota of $100,000. Oklahoma has raised about $78,000 of a $100,000 quota and Louisiana has raised $8,147.36 of a $100,000 quota.

Col. Wood has announced that many of the counties in this territory have already been organized for this campaign. Organization in the remaining counties will be undertaken immediately so that whirlwind campaigns can be put on within the next few weeks.

The purpose of these campaigns is to obtain funds with which to make possible the extension of Salvation Army work in this territory. All money raised in a state will be spent in that state. At present the Salvation Army maintains a Rescue Home in San Antonio for unfortunate girls, a home for children at El Paso, workingmen's hotels in Beaumont, Dallas, Fort Worth and Galveston, Texas, second-hand stores in Dallas and Fort Worth, Red Shield Hotels for soldiers in San Antonio and El Paso, and a home for working girls in Dallas.

It is planned to enlarge these institutions and erect similar ones in Oklahoma and Louisiana. The Salvation Army also plans to erect community buildings in every city throughout this territory where a Salvation Army Corps is established. These buildings will serve as clubs for working men of the communities and their families besides being the center of all Salvation Army activities for their immediate sections.

The next best thing to doing Christian service, Col. Wood stated recently, "is to help someone else to do it. Thousands who are living in places where opportunities for such service are not favorable can join in the Salvation Army work by contributing to and securing contributions for the work."

COMMISSION WILL STUDY ARDMORE RATES

By the Associated Press
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 20.—The state corporation commission announced today that it had set Sept. 9 as the date upon which it will hold a hearing at Ardmore on the application of the Consumers Light and Power company to advance rates on gas and electricity in Ardmore. Commissioner Russell conducted a hearing on this matter at Ardmore in March and recently an order was issued fixing a minimum rate to large consumers of gas. The order included the information that the commission would reopen the matter to determine equitable rates to other consumers.

ANADARKO'S MAYOR PARDONED BY TRAPP

By News' Special Service
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 20.—A citizenship pardon was granted yesterday afternoon by Acting Governor Trapp to E. L. Plumb, formerly mayor of Anadarko who had been convicted of embezzlement, sentenced to serve four years in prison and after serving about one year was paroled by former Governor Williams. Plumb's accounts with the city of Anadarko were straight and unquestioned and the embezzlement charge grew out of an alleged mishandling of funds in connection with a farm loan bureau. Plumb is now a resident of Texas.
